Any student or student organization representing Creighton University School of Pharmacy and Health Professions and who is planning to participate in a "health fair" type activity must notify the Associate Dean for Student Affairs in advance of the activity. In order for students to participate, a faculty member (or a non-faculty practitioner approved by the Associate Dean for Student Affairs) must be in attendance during the entire course of the activity.