

Dean's Message

The School of Pharmacy and Health Professions steps into 2017 with a renewed determination and charge into the spring semester. Check out this edition of our e-newsletter closely as we have many success stories that we are proud to share with you. Learn more about why I am so proud of your School of Pharmacy and Health Professions.

Team-Based Clinical Care

The new CHI Health Creighton University Medical Center - University Campus, located at 24th and Cuming streets, is innovating ways to work as a team, including a unique "huddle" approach. Read more.

PT Student Remembered

The Physical Therapy Department hosted its first memorial shoot-a-thon for Katie Schindler Prins, DPT'16, who recently died. The funds raised will go toward a scholarship in her honor. View photos from the event here.

Pharmacy Students Awarded

William Kibalama, pictured at left, a third-year pharmacy student, received the 2017 Martin Luther King, Jr. student leadership award. Mary Kasl, second-year pharmacy student, was awarded the Paul Ambrose Scholarship to continue her colorectal cancer screening project with the Heart Ministry Center.

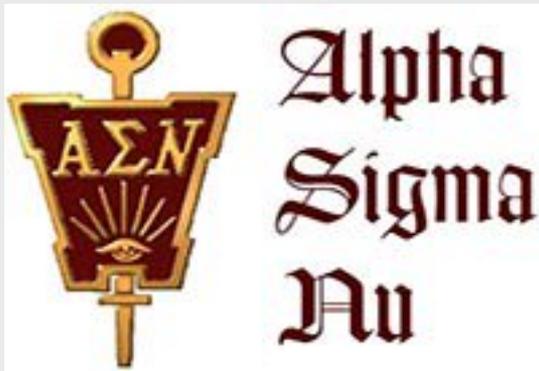

Be the Match

This past month, faculty, staff and students came together for the annual "Be the Match" bone marrow donor program. This year's program held special meaning as it honored physical therapy associate professor Julie Hoffman, PT, DPT, CCS, who was diagnosed with leukemia just before Thanksgiving. View photos from the event here.

Faculty, Staff Honored

The Faculty Development and Recognitions Committee recently presented well-deserved awards to School of Pharmacy and Health Professions faculty and staff, and one faculty member was awarded an endowment fund. Read more here.

Alpha Sigma Nu Inducts SPAHP Students

Sixteen SPAHP students have been inducted into the Creighton chapter of the national honor society for Jesuit colleges and universities, Alpha Sigma Nu. Read more here.

Faculty Become Honorary Alpha Sigma Nu Members

Angela Patterson, OTD'15, OTR/L, assistant professor of occupational therapy and Daniel Hilleman, PharmD'81, professor of pharmacy and medicine, were recognized as honorary members of Creighton's chapter of Alpha Sigma Nu. Read more.

Alumnus Provides Care From Mosul to Baltimore

Josef (Joe) Otto, OTD'08, is living out his early aspiration as he works to solve public health problems and provide care to underserved populations in the United States.

Read more.

Annual Meetings Reminder

The SPAHP alumni office invites you to attend the APhA Annual Meeting Nebraska reception on March 25 in San Francisco, RSVP here. The AOTA Annual Conference and Expo March 31 in Philadelphia. Stay connected by visiting the SPAHP alumni page.

OT Celebrating 100 Years at AOTA Conference

Creighton OT faculty, students and alumni will attend and represent our school with poster, short-course and workshop presentations at the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA) annual meeting in Philadelphia March 30 - April 2. A list of many of these presentations can be found here. We look forward to a large Creighton presence, supporting the profession and the University.

Stay Connected

If anything changes, let us know! Update your information by clicking the “Stay Connected” button.

Name: Jill Zuerlein

Address: 7817 South 101st Street, La Vista, Nebraska

Home Phone: 402-2803239

STAY CONNECTED

Creighton
UNIVERSITY

School of Pharmacy
and Health Professions

GIVE NOW

2500 California Plaza
Omaha, Nebraska 68178

402.280.2700
spahp.creighton.edu

Creighton University
2500 California Plaza
Omaha, NE 68178

click here to manage your email preferences or to unsubscribe